

Zone Change

A Zone Change may be initiated by the City Commission, Planning Commission or property owner. It may also occur as the result of the Master Plan or the adoption of an Area Specific Plan. Typically, property owners request a Zone Change in order to use their property in a way that is not allowed under the existing Zone District. The application process includes public notice and a public hearing before the Planning Commission. Any change recommended by the Planning Commission must be approved by the City Commission.

In reviewing a request, the Planning Commission will consider whether the proposed Zone District is consistent with the Master Plan (including the Future Land Use Map), the Zoning Ordinance, and the trend of development in the area. The impact on the neighborhood, environment, public facilities, and economic welfare of the City will also be evaluated.

Application Procedures

Zone Change

NOTE: See "PRD Application" for a zone change to a special district known as a Planned Redevelopment District (PRD). A different application form is used because a PRD requires an Area Specific Plan in accordance with the criteria established in Chapter 11 of the 2002 Master Plan. For more information on PRDs, please refer to Sections 5.7.06. and 5.12.14. of the Zoning Ordinance.

1. General Information

A Zone Change may be initiated by the City Commission, Planning Commission or property owner. It may also occur as the result of the Master Plan or the adoption of an Area Specific Plan. Regardless of who initiates the request, all Zone Changes must be recommended by the Planning Commission and approved by the City Commission.

Typically, property owners request a Zone Change in order to use their property in a way that is not allowed under the adopted Zone District. The following are different types of Zone Changes:

- From one Neighborhood Classification to another Neighborhood Classification.
- From one Zone District to another Zone District.
- A combination of Neighborhood Classification and Zone District change.

2. Pre-Application Consultation

A pre-application meeting with Planning staff is recommended as an initial informal review of the proposed project. The meeting is intended to determine what kind of zone change is needed, if other approvals are required, and to explain the process to be followed to obtain a decision on the proposal.

The preliminary proposal may also be referred to the City staff "Design Team" to obtain the input of other City departments such as the City Engineer, Traffic Engineer, Environmental Protection, Fire, Water, and others. Following this initial review, the applicant will be better prepared to complete a Zone Change application.

3. Neighborhood Meeting

Applicants are strongly encouraged to meet with neighboring property owners and the neighborhood association or business association before the public hearing. The purpose of a neighborhood meeting is to inform nearby stakeholders of the proposed change, receive comments and address concerns about the proposal, and whenever possible resolve conflicts in advance of Planning Commission review. Failure to hold a neighborhood meeting may result in a tabling of the request. Recommended procedures are found in Section 5.12.04. of the Zoning Ordinance.

4. Application

An application packet for a Zone Change is available from the Grand Rapids Planning Department, located on the third floor of 1120 Monroe Avenue NW or at the Planning Department's website www.grcity.us/planning under Forms and Applications. You may also call 616-456-4100.

A complete application must be received at least one (1) month prior to the Planning Commission meeting. See www.grcity.us/planning for the schedule of Planning Commission meetings and application deadlines.

If the proposal also requires a Special Land Use approval, the SLU application must be submitted at the same time.

If the Zone Change is for a TOD (Transit-Oriented Development) Zone District, the application must include written verification from the Rapid that the transit station or stop is in a permanent location.

5. Staff Review

The application will be reviewed by Planning staff prior to submission to the Planning Commission. A Planner may contact the applicant with questions or a request for additional information, or may advise the applicant on recommended changes or revisions to the application and submittals for the purpose of clarity.

6. Notice of Public Hearing

Following the staff review, the Zone Change application is forwarded to the Planning Commission for a public hearing. A notice of the public hearing is published in the Grand Rapids Press 15 days prior to the Planning Commission meeting. Property owners and residents within a 300 ft radius of the subject property are notified by post card. Interested persons may submit a letter or speak at the public hearing.

7. Planning Commission Meeting

Each public hearing item for consideration is assigned an approximate start time. The Planning staff introduces and explains the request to the Planning Commission. The applicant is then asked to present information on his or her proposal. The Planning Commission may ask questions of the staff and/or applicant. The Planning Commission then allows public comment on the application, and a chance for the applicant to respond to any concerns or questions. The public comment period is then closed and the Planning Commission deliberates on the request in open session. The Planning Commission may recommend approval or denial, or may table the application.

8. City Commission Action

The Planning Commission recommendation is forwarded to the City Commission for review, and if approved, for adoption of a City ordinance. The City Commission will consider the recommendation of the Planning Commission through the following process.

- The proposed zone change is presented to the Community Development Committee of the City Commission. The Commission sets a date for the adoption of the ordinance. If the item warrants, the City Commission may hold a public hearing before voting on the proposed ordinance.
- If the decision is to hold a public hearing, the hearing date is approximately one month later, following the same procedures for notice of public hearing and postcard mailing described in #6. above.
- The decision to adopt the ordinance is usually made at the next regularly scheduled City Commission meeting.
- The effective date of the City Commission approval is 30 days after the decision.

9. Written Notice

The applicant will be provided with a letter and resolution that documents the decision of the City Commission.

10. Appeal

If the City Commission denies an application for a zone change, the applicant may not appeal the decision. The applicant may submit an application for a use variance to the Board of Zoning Appeals or pursue action in Circuit Court as alternatives avenues for project consideration.
